

Ag Day Photo Competition

Congratulations to Helen Springs for winning the inaugural Ag Day photo competition! The photo shown below, was of a jillaroo taken at Helen Springs in the NT after she had attended animal welfare improvement training, conducted at Helen Springs. This continues Hancock's drive that happy and healthier cattle are better cattle. Congratulations to the other Hancock station photographers who featured in the top ten with the below photos, and to all other photographers who entered the inaugural Ag Day competition!
