

Radio Brisbane – Commonwealth Games

Hosted by Craig Zonca and Rebecca Livingston

Livingston says after winning at last night's Gold Coast Commonwealth Games, Mitch Larkins blew a kiss to both Don Fraser and Gina Rinehart. She says she did not realise the close relationship of Rinehart's Hancock Prospecting and Swimming Australia. She mentions swimmer Ian Thorpe has stated Rinehart was the responsible for the success of the swimming team. She believes the partnership extends up to the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. Zonca says Kurt Fearnley has ended his career on the track with a silver medal in the men's T54 1500m race. Livingston says Lakeisha Patterson won her second gold in the S8 50m freestyle, despite having early onset Parkinson's Disease, Epilepsy, and Cerebral Palsy.
